"Together we learn" Elementary students receive awards

Elk Point Elementary School's top students received a bumper crop of awards last Wednesday, as the school year drew to an exciting close. Principal Don Conrad told students, parents and staff that the school's motto, "Together we learn," applied to all present, and that the occasion was truly a "celebration of learning in this school."

The School Council's Team 4 theme, "The Final Chapter," was an apt one, Conrad said. "On Friday, we close the book on many memories." He noted that the school will not only be saying goodbye to the Grade 6 students, and looking forward to hearing of their future accomplishments, but will also be saying goodbye to Miss Grabas, who is taking a year's leave to attend university in Quebec, and to Ms Myshak, who is going to the University of Alberta to work on a Master's degree in Psychology. She will be replaced by Mrs. Bilak, who has been working at St. Paul Elementary School, while Mrs. Wolinski from Grand Centre will replace Miss Grabas.

Police / Fire Games relay visits Elk Point

The World Police / Fire Games torch relay visited Elk Point last week on the first lap of their journey to Calgary. Relay teams from all four corners of the province set out Tuesday to promote the Games, which were held in Calgary this weekend.

The runners were welcomed by Alberta Power's Ashton Sewlal and by Mayor Ed Buck, who congratulated them for their effort, and Alberta Power and Northwest Utilities for their sponsorship of the Games. "This event is bigger than I thought," he noted, announcing that local RCMP officer John Dzerdz would be involved in the competition in trap and skeet shooting. He wished Dzerdz and the relay team good luck and good weather.

Fire Chief Ken Palamarek welcomed the runners on behalf of the Elk Point Volunteer Fire Department, and wished them "a sunny trip," adding thanks to the sponsors.

Dzerdz spoke on behalf of the local RCMP, and said he also competed in the 1993 Games. "We're behind you a hundred percent," he told the runners.

The northeast relay started out in Cold Lake, and were continuing on to Vermilion after leaving Elk Point. "We're really pushing it," said Sue Anne Ford of the Calgary City Police, spokesperson for the run. She noted that there would be at least one person running at all times, in relay fashion, throughout the entire distance to Calgary.

GRACE FRANKS AWARDS went to the top all-around students at Elk Point Elementary School Awards Day. Winners, decided on the basis of academic achievement, good citizenship and good sportsmanship, who received their awards from Bernice Capjack-Hugo, were: Grade 1A - Nicole Labrie; 1B - Derek Wruth; 2A - Sage Lowry and Craig Dallaire; 2B: Mark Brodwin and Kody Wickham; 3A - Daylan Hoffman; 3B - Amanda Poulin; 4A - Nicholas Myshaniuk, 4B - Amy Millar, 5A - Jonathan Bury; 5B - Kristyn Ballas and Jason Kalynchuk; 6A - Tasha Yopyk; and 6B - Kristy Lindquist. Wainwright dash for cash goes to Luke Tournier

The rain-plagued Wainwright Stampede chuckwagon races ended in a Dash for Cash, with the three fastest aggregate times heading into a final heat with $3000 in prize money up for grabs.

Rod Salmond, who won

Saturday's show with his Burns Meats outfit, was the leader going into the heat and drew barrel position number three. Ray Mitsuing, who finished second Saturday, drew barrel two for his Conoco Equipment outfit, leaving the number one barrel for a very happy Luke Tournier, with Tournier Ranching on his tarp.

When the horn blew and the infield cleared, Mitsuing was out of the contest with a barrel down.

Tournier took the rail and pulled almost a wagon length ahead of his competitors at the wire to win cash and a trophy buckle.

The Canadian Professional Chuckwagon Association's top ten, as of June 23, were: 1. Bert Croteau, 2. Ray Mitsuing, 3. Leo Tournier, 4. Luke Tournier, 5. Dennis McGillivray, 6. Jim Knight, 7. Wayne Knight, 8. Grant Preece, 9. Ray Croteau, 10. Brian Laboucane.

From the FCSS desk...

An Elk Point welcome to everyone!

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

Canada Day is tomorrow. Can you believe it? Our Canada Day celebrations will be in full swing all day long.

This Canada Day is a special one for Elk Point. We are celebrating 90 years of settlement. Many people who once lived in Elk Point and / or their descendants will be visiting us. Welcome back! We appreciate your visit. By the way, anyone who comes to the Canada Day Celebrations and who is a descendant of a pioneer who came to this area between 1907 and 1927, is invited to stop by the guest register table at the pancake breakfast between 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. to register and pick up your special ribbon. If you are unable to pick up your ribbon then, come to the Canada Day Craft Table at the Arena between 1:00 and 4:00 p.m.

Do you remember how Elk Point received its name? Why, our first post master came from Elk Point, South Dakota. Hence the name for our community became Elk Point. For those visitors who have come all the way from Elk Point, South Dakota — WELCOME!

To remember that we are celebrating 90 years of settlement, we have T-shirts for sale. You can pick these up at the Canada Day craft table for $15. We have all sizes. Or, if you are unable to do so on Canada Day, we have more at the FCSS Office, Stedmans and Hillside Service, the Independent gas station on Highway 41 north.

There are so many things to see and do while you are in Elk Point. Don't forget our parade. It will start with the Children's Bicycle Parade at 11:50 a.m., and the main Parade will start at noon. Don't miss that! Afterward, if you feel hungry, stop at the Arena. Their concession booth will be open. Beef on a bun will be the special. Craft tables with times for sale will be in the arena from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. And, weather permitting, an outdoor stage show will take place from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. If the weather wants to be other than sunny, come and sit down in the arena to enjoy the performers. You wouldn't believe all the wonderful and marvellous local talent! You really have to come.

I hope your plans will be to take part in the Elk Point Canada Day Celebrations! It is going to be a great day! See you there! And as I said before... WELCOME TO ELK POINT, EVERYONE!

Canoe journey to retrace fur trade route

A four-day, 95-mile canoe adventure down the North Saskatchewan River this week will follow the route established two centuries ago by the fur trade. The river trip is being staged by the Friends of the Forts, Fort George and Buckingham House Society, to promote the aboriginal and fur-trade history of the Fort George and Buckingham House Historic Site.

The journey will begin at Victoria Settlement, where a brigade of at least fourteen canoe enthusiasts will gather Wednesday, July 2 for a supper sponsored by the Friends of Fort Victoria.

They will embark at 9 a.m.

Thursday, with their first overnight stop at Desjarlais Crossing, approximately seven miles southwest of Hamlin.

Friday's journey will bring them to the Brosseau-Duvernay area in time for a supper provided by the hotel and sponsored by the Friends of the Forts, after which the travellers will paddle a few miles further for their overnight stop.

Saturday's destination is at the south landing of the old Hopkins Ferry.

The final leg of the trip will reach the Fort George - Buckingham House canoe landing at approximately 1:30 p.m. Sunday afternoon, where the general public is invited to be on hand to welcome the brigade.

Canoe enthusiasts are also welcome to join the group anywhere along the route to paddle all day or for a shorter time.

For more information on how you can take part in the event, please call 645-6256.

Butterflies set free

PAINTED LADY BUTTERFLIES took to the air last Tuesday when Elk Point Elementary teacher Wayne Hymanyk and his students released the beautiful creatures they have raised in the Grade 3 classroom this spring. The butterflies were purchased as tiny caterpillars from a science supply store in Ontario, and soon turned into chubby white chrysalis, which in turn hatched into the intricately patterned orange and brown butterflies. Hymanyk had planned to release the butterflies last week, but held off when they started laying eggs. Now the three-week life cycle is starting over. Through considerable research on the butterflies, the class learned that these butterflies normally migrate to California for the winter, which is possible because in the third and final life cycle of the summer, the butterflies develop a special hormone which enables them to live up to 8 months. Hymanyk's butterflies, raised on a sugar-water diet served on sponges, are now visiting local flower gardens, where we hear they prefer the nectar from yellow flowers.

Nutrition notes

Some tips for feeding the kids

By Shelley Miller-Hertes
Registered Dietician, Elk Point Health Centre

This week's focus is on feeding your toddler or preschooler. How to get them to eat the things they should and enjoy it!

The Canada Food Guide is modified for children. Serving sizes are smaller, but foods from all four food groups are important for growth and development.

(1) Grain Products — recommend 4 to 5 small servings per day

— bread sticks and unsalted crackers are fun to eat as finger foods — different shapes of pasta are fun to explore — giving foods special names like "flying saucer" pancakes or "blue-eyed" (blueberry) muffins

— offer cereals which have 4 grams or less of sugar per serving (check the label for this information)

(2) Vegetables and fruits — recommend 4 to 5 small servings per day

— children enjoy vegetables with crisp textures and bright colors as finger foods

— raw vegetables are often more popular with kids than cooked vegetables

— serve fresh fruit for dessert

— use plain yogurt or blended cottage cheese for nutritious and lower fat vegetable dips

— create faces and animal shapes from vegetables and fruit

(3) Meat and alternatives — recommend 2 small servings per day

— chewing meat can be difficult for some young children. The following soft meats and alternatives may appeal to your child: lean ground beef, fish with no bones, eggs, tofu, baked beans or other legumes, and peanut butter — offer lean red meats, organ meats and poultry as a source of iron

— cut sandwiches into a variety of smaller shapes — rectangles, triangles, halves or quarters

(4) Milk products — recommend 3 small servings per day

— use pasteurized milk with vitamin D added

— offer flavored milks only as a special treat, as they are higher in sugar than white milk

— dilute flavored milks with white milk

— children often enjoy eating cheese. Offer cheeses lower in fat.

— limit processed cheese slices and cheese spreads as they are higher in salt than natural cheeses

What about snacks?

Toddlers and preschoolers need snacks between meals because their tummies can only hold a small amount of food. Offer nutritious snacks about 2 1/2 or 3 hours before the next meal, so your child is not too full when lunch or supper is served.

Above all, make sure meal and snack times are pleasant and relaxing times. This will help the child develop healthy attitudes towards eating that will last a lifetime.

Congratulations from our "sister city"

Along with our regular shipment of the Elk Point, South Dakota "Leader Courier," we have received letters of congratulation to our Chamber of Commerce and our Town Council on the 90th anniversary of the arrival of pioneer settlers in the Elk Point area. We would like to share these with you as we mark this milestone in our history.

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce
Elk Point, Alberta, Canada

Dear Chamber Members:

We, the Elk Point Commercial Club, in Elk Point, South Dakota, wish to congratulate your community on its 90th birthday and your annual observance of Canada Day, July 1.

It is amazing to note, especially from viewing your newspaper, how similar many things are in our two communities. We each work to make our communities better and encourage both tourists and new residents to settle in our areas.

Since we are so similar, perhaps we can begin a correspondence with each other to help each of our communities as they continue to grow and develop.

Sincerely,

Rich Rosenbaum, President

Lea Reynolds, Secretary-Treasurer

Elk Point Town Council
Elk Point, Alberta, Canada

Dear Sirs:

We, the members of the Elk Point, South Dakota, City Council wish to congratulate you and your community on your 90th birthday party as well as your annual observance of Canada Day, July 1.

We are proud that your ancestors, which legend says came from our area, chose the name "Elk Point" for your community, making us the only two communities in the world with that name. Like us, you are a growing community with a bright future ahead of you.

Although many hundreds of miles and an international border separate our two communities, perhaps by the time you celebrate your 100th birthday in 2007 and we celebrate our 150th birthday in 2009, we will be "sister cities" in more than name only.

Sincerely,

TIC talk

By Sherry Pelech
Tourist Information Clerk

Around here there is only one accurate way to predict the weather: You look at Moose Mountain. If you can see it clearly, it means it is going to rain. If you cannot see it clearly, it means it is already raining. And this is positively our last word on the weather. Unless the sun shines. Or it doesn't. Or until next week.

Meanwhile, here at the TIC (Tourist Information Centre) we celebrated St. Jean Baptiste Day by unpacking our newly arrived shipment of Quebec travel information. It is the last of our across-Canada tourism packages to arrive but it was well worth waiting for. In addition to the usual maps, accommodation and campground guides, they also sent us information on fishing and hunting packages, summer and fall vacation packages, general vacation material, special events calendars and lodging guides.

Here is an interesting tidbit gleaned from the Quebec brochures — If you are like us, and the most you can say in the French language is "Bonjour" this makes you an 'Allo phone'.

This does not mean what you may think it means. While Allô in French does mean Hello, Allo without the little hat over the O means 'other' so in fact 'Allo phone' means you speak a language other than French.

And that concludes today's language lesson. Stop in at the TIC and say Bonjour, Hello, Sayonara, Aloha or any 'allo' thing you care to and ask us about all our cross-Canada information.

Above the Limit wrap-up

F. G. Miller High School's Above the Limit coordinator Denise Smereka calls it "a great year. READiscover program, Friday afternoon matinees start this week

By Michele Ducek
Librarian

READiscover, the Elk Point Public Library's Summer Reading Program, stats this Thursday, July 3 at 1:30 p.m. We are still accepting registrations for this program and it still only costs a dollar for the whole summer. Karina, our program leader, has been very busy these past few weeks and she has a lot of neat things planned for the summer.

This week is also the beginning of our Friday afternoon matinees. For seven weeks this summer we will be showing a movie at 1:30 Friday afternoon. You bring your own snacks and drinks and we provide the entertainment. This summer, in keeping with the theme of the summer reading program, we are showing movies which have to do with science. Once again we are starting things off with the Star Wars trilogy. Films to follow include Apollo 13, and Twister, and others to be named later. Keep tuned to this column for the scheduled showings.

To get you in the science mood here are a few more recent arrivals in children's nonfiction

A young girl learns different reasons for why the sun has disappeared in The Missing Sun by Peter Eyvindson and Rhian Brynjolson.

Summer Stargazing: A Practical Guide for Recreational Astronomers by Terence Dickinson shows you how to stargaze with full color star charts, hundreds of objects of special interest, tips on how to get the best out of your equipment and a whole lot more.

Spice up your life (actually just your face) with Face Painting by Lynsey Pinsent with 40 original designs and lots of great ideas.

See Hear: Playing with Light and Sound by Milan Tytla shows you how to create experiments using everyday items that enable you to explore two of your most important senses, sight and hearing.

Spy Science by Jim Wiese contains 40 secret spy activities for kids to do, from sending secret messages to devising a cool disguise.

A couple of years ago, The Boggart by Susan Cooper was a Young Reader's Choice nominee. I really liked this book. Now Cooper has come up with a sequel. Emily and Jessup return to Castle Keep in Scotland to find that the Boggart is still very much alive. When the Boggart accompanies the kids on a trip to Loch Ness, he is enchanted to find a long-lost cousin in The Boggart and the Monster.

IN MEMORIAM

BERG, Dennis

In loving memory of our dear son, brother and uncle, who was taken from us suddenly on July 02, 1989.

*As we whisper to you softly, each and every day,
About how much we miss you, and wish you could have stayed.*

*I know our love will never fade, the hurt and tears will stay,
As this is part of memories, we keep with us each day.*

*It seems like only yesterday, when you were called away,
Our heart, our mind, our soul, are with you every hour of everyday.*

*There will always be a heartache, and many a silent tear,
But always precious memories, of the days when you were here,*

*We hold you close within our hearts,
And there you will remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives
Until we meet again.*

Deeply loved and sadly missed by your family, Mom, Dad, Rusty, Lynn, Mandy, Sharon, Thomas, Tara-Lynn.

1997 school camps a huge success despite weather

By Rob Boyd
Elk Point Elementary School

This year's Elk Point Elementary School camps certainly came second to none, when compared to camps in the past. A lot soggier, when you consider all the rain that has fallen over the past two weeks, than many other camps but still very action-packed, rewarding and hopefully memorable to the students.

The grade six camp went from June 3 to June 6 with 40 students and four supervisors in attendance. While at camp the students were involved in various activities which included: archery, wood carving, canoeing, candle making, string art, fishing, whistle making as well as sessions involving math and arts and crafts. An olympic games competition rounded out the very busy daily schedule for the grade six students.

The grade five camp, June 18, 19 and 20 involved 47 students as well as four supervisors. The activities for the grade five students included: outdoor cooking, orienteering, pond study, wildlife studies, first aid, wetlands ecosystem activities as well as arts and craft sessions.

Both groups of campers went on a hike, jogged each morning, participated in campfire sing songs, and were treated to recreational swim time each day.

A huge thanks goes out to all the parent volunteers that transported equipment to and from camp, assisted in the kitchen preparing meals, and provided snacks for this year's parent nights! Thanks also to the staff members of the Elementary School that volunteered their time! Last and certainly not least, the campers and supervisors from the camps would like to send out a huge thanks for all those terrific meals to our head cook Mrs. Delores Zacharuk and her assistant Miss Tammy Zacharuk!
